

Mr. GOSS. It would be my fondest wish to be able to give a date certain to the gentlewoman from Connecticut. The best I can say is that it is the intention to finish up by the end of next week. Whether or not that will be possible, we do not know. Clearly, when we start out with a good intention, it enhances the possibility that we will succeed at that good intention. But Members need to know we may in fact be working through next week, and then plan accordingly.

Ms. DELAURO. Through the weekend. And a final question. On which day do you expect the broadband legislation to come to the floor of the House?

Mr. GOSS. If the gentlewoman will continue to yield, I understand two committees of jurisdiction are still putting some final touches on that, and that that will be announced next week, early on in the week, as far as I know.

Ms. DELAURO. So we can anticipate that it would be at the beginning? We come back in on Tuesday night; so Wednesday, Thursday?

Mr. GOSS. It is unlikely that that legislation would show up before Wednesday.

Ms. DELAURO. Meaning that we will not be here before Wednesday. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. GOSS. I hope the gentlewoman will be here before Wednesday, because there will be votes Tuesday night at 6:30.

Ms. DELAURO. I understand. So it will not be Tuesday night.

WELCOME TO SOUTH FLORIDA RECEPTION IN HONOR OF DONNA SHALALA

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, tonight the Humane Society of Greater Miami is hosting a "Welcome to South Florida" reception. The event is being held to welcome University of Miami President Donna Shalala and her dog, Cheka, to south Florida.

President Shalala was the longest-serving Secretary for Health and Human Services in U.S. history. Before that, she served as Chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, the first woman to head a Big 10 university.

She is now at a new job that she loves, President of the University of Miami, a major and leading research university in the southeastern United States, located in my congressional district.

□ 1745

President Shalala says that Cheka "speaks English and Spanish and is a perfect fit for south Florida, the Gateway of the Americas."

We thank Kelly Grimm and the Humane Society of Greater Miami for their dedication to helping homeless animals, and Donna Shalala as president of the University of Miami.

ENACT INTERSTATE WASTE LEGISLATION

(Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. JO ANN DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I come to the floor this afternoon to call attention to yet another trash truck accident on Interstate 95. On Tuesday, a possibly overloaded 18-wheeler hauling trash almost snapped in half on the Woodrow Wilson Bridge because of its cargo shifting en route, and it consequently snarled Washington rush hour traffic for several hours and caused a 9-mile backup. Fortunately, it appears no one was hurt.

This incident is only a symptom of a larger problem. Specifically, millions of tons of garbage are being shipped across State lines without States having the right to limit its importation. It makes our highways less safe and fouls the land and air in the communities surrounding the landfills. It is a health and safety matter that Congress should empower States to regulate.

Currently, the hands of the States are tied. I urge the 107th Congress to enact meaningful interstate waste legislation that will enable States to protect their citizens and their environment from this continuous flood of out-of-state trash.
